Prayer Requests /Care & Concerns List

On "Freedom's Eve," or the eve of January 1, 1863, the first Watch Night services took place. On that night, enslaved and free African Americans gathered in churches and private homes all across the country awaiting news that the Emancipation Proclamation had taken effect. But not everyone in Confederate territory would immediately be free. As a result, in the westernmost Confederate state of Texas, enslaved people would not be free until much later. Freedom finally came on June 19, 1865, when some 2,000 Union troops arrived in Galveston Bay, Texas. The army announced that the more than 250,000 enslaved black people in the state, were free by executive decree. This day came to be known as "Juneteenth," by the newly freed people in Texas.

The Lord's Supper

Minister: For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jesus the night in which he was betrayed took the bread.

Congregation: And when he had blessed it, he brake and said take eat: this is my body which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

Minister: And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they drank of it.

Congregation: For as often as you eat of this bread and drink this cup, ye shall shew the Lord's death til he comes.

Minister: Verily I say unto, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.

Congregation: And when they sung a hymn, they went out into the Mount of Olives.

Minister: Therefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

Congregation: But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

Together: For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

Thought of the Week

If you can't fly then run, if you can't run then walk, if you can't walk then crawl, but whatever you do you have to keep moving forward. Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Scripture: The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Tell the people of Israel to go forward. Exodus 14:15

Theme for June: Divine Alignment

And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it," when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left. Isaiah 30:21

Happy Birthday! Hoping you are blessed with limitless happiness as you celebrate the anniversary of your birth. May you inherit long life, prosperity and all that God has in store for those who love and serve him. Happy Birthday to all celebrating a birthday this week from your church family.

Happy Birthday

Trustee Douglas Griffin, Sis. Bridget Grant, Sis. Yolanda Bailey, and Sis. Wilhelmena Tilly

Bereavement Prayer: Gracious and Loving Father; we pray for the families who are grieving the loss of their loved one. You know the intimate details of how deeply they are hurting, how painful the sorrow is, and what they need each day. We ask that you bring them comfort and strength, fulfilling the promise that you are near to the brokenhearted. Surround them, oh Lord, with a community of people who will show them love, compassion, and care. In Jesus name, Amen.
